

On Tuesday, June 19, I held a telephone town hall meeting with central New Jersey residents. I heard questions and concerns about a wide range of issues, including Medicare, civil liberties, immigration reform, efforts to create new jobs, and much more.

To listen to a recording of the meeting, please click here.